

HIV/AIDS RESOURCES for CLINICIANS

Toll-Free Numbers
Resource	Number and Hours	Description
National HIV/AIDS Clinicians' Consultation Center	1-800-933-3413 Monday - Friday 9am – 8pm ET Voicemail 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.	This warmline is for health care providers only to obtain phone consultation on individual patient management issues from expert HIV clinicians at UCSF/San Francisco General Hospital. More information on the web at www.ucsf.edu/hivcntr .
PEPline	1-888-448-4911 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.	This number is for health care providers only to get advice on post-exposure management of health care workers who are exposed to blood-borne pathogens. Staffed by UCSF expert HIV clinicians.
National Perinatal Hotline	1-888-448-8765 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.	Management of HIV-related issues for pregnant patients, including prevention of perinatal transmission, testing and treatment of women in labor. Staffed by expert HIV clinicians at UCSF/San Francisco General Hospital.
AIDSInfo: Treatment guidelines and clinical trials	1-800-448-0440 Monday – Friday 12N – 5pm ET	NIH provides information on HIV treatment and clinical trials for clinicians and the general public. Information available in English and Spanish. Guidelines available for download at website as well as access to “LiveHelp” chat service for one-on-one confidential information at www.aidsinfo.nih.gov . May subscribe to weekly email updates online. Email address is ContactUs@aidinfo.nih.gov .
CDC National Prevention Information Network	1-800-458-5231 Monday - Friday 9am – 8pm ET	CDC will supply HIV information, statistics, and technical assistance on the phone or by fax. Information in English or Spanish. Website is www.cdcnpin.org . May subscribe to Prevention News listserv on the website. Also addresses STDs and TB.
Antiretroviral Pregnancy Registry	1-800-258-4263 Monday - Friday 9am – 5:30pm ET	This national registry has been in existence since 1989 for infants exposed to antiretroviral drugs in utero . Providers caring for pregnant women on ARVs are encouraged to register patients anonymously for prospective outcomes studies. Registry provides periodic reports on data collected. Website is www.apregistry.com .
National Tuberculosis Center	1-800-4TB-DOCS Monday – Friday 9am – 5pm ET Voicemail 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.	Provides information for health care providers and the general public. Available on the web at www.umdnj.edu/ntbcweb or by email at ntbc@umdnj.edu . Treatment calls answered by senior medical staff at NJ Medical School/University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey.
National Center for Complementary and Alternative Medicine	1-888-644-6226 Monday - Friday 8:30am – 5:00pm ET	NIH-sponsored national clearinghouse for HIV and non-HIV-related complementary and alternative therapies. Information available via fax on demand service and on the web at www.nccam.nih.gov .

HIV/AIDS RESOURCES for CLINICIANS

Websites for Clinicians
Resource	Web Address	Description
Medscape	www.medscape.com/hiv-aidshome	Treatment articles, conference updates, free CME offerings, drug interaction information, and more. May subscribe to weekly email updates.
Clinical Options	www.clinicaloptions.com/hiv	Conference reviews, expert commentary, interactive case studies, slide presentations, and subject-specific educational modules for HIV clinicians.
HIV and Hepatitis	www.hivandhepatits.com	Latest research on HIV, viral hepatitis, and co-infections. Email updates available.
HIVdent	www.HIVdent.org	Oral manifestations of HIV including photographs and general HIV information, including oral health for adults, adolescents, and children with HIV.
AETC National Resource Center	www.aidsetc.org	AIDS Education and Training Centers National Resource Center has slide sets, clinical updates, and teaching resources for health care providers and trainers.
University of WA – HIV web study	http://hivwebstudy.org	Interactive case-based modules on clinical care of patients with HIV infection. Managed by University of Washington, with free CME.

Patient Education Materials
Resource	Web Address	Description
The Body	www.thebody.com	Basic and advanced information for lay people including prevention, treatment, online bulletin boards, and how to find a support group or AIDS service organization in your area.
NM AIDS InfoNet	www.aidsinonet.org	New Mexico AIDS InfoNet site with extensive library of one-page fact sheets on HIV medications, opportunistic infections, and other issues. In English, Spanish, and other languages.
Project Inform	www.projinf.org	Project Inform website with information for people living with HIV, including specific newsletter for women and newly-diagnosed persons.
The Well Project	www.thewellproject.com	HIV information specific to women in lay language.

A publication of the Southeast AIDS Training and Education Center.

For more information on HIV/AIDS treatment and care and forthcoming HIV training events, please contact:

SEATEC
735 Gatewood Road, NE
Atlanta, GA 30322-4950
404-727-2929
www.seatec.emory.edu

